

Whitney Bradley 15:26:37

Hey, everyone! Whitney Bradley from the Family Life Office here. I'm here to help if you have any technical questions, so message me privately. Also, we'd love it if you would use this space to throw out questions and comments.

Padrecarl 15:28:47

What's up folks, Father Gregory Carl from Norfolk here.

Whitney Bradley 15:29:26

Glad you could make it!

christinefrench 15:37:13

HEY all - It's Christine using the chat room!

Whitney Bradley 15:37:21

Hey, Christine!

Fr. Tobias Letak 15:37:33

impressive, Christine. ;P

FrSund 15:37:50

this chat looks like its just for the cool kids

Tony LaMar 15:38:21

Nope. I'm here

David Hazen 15:38:32

Tony, you stole my response!

Cjmueller 15:38:56

equip.archomaha.org is also for the cool kids

jsanchez-hidalgo 15:41:34

This is a HUGE opportunity for our Parishes

Tony LaMar 15:42:31

Hunger for the Eucharist and to find Him in other ways!

Fr. Tobias Letak 15:43:47

YES!!

Linda Asher 15:45:05

Calvin, can our small groups still meet in person if the groups are less than 10 and as long as we practice good hygiene?

Cjmueller 15:46:02

Linda, Great question! If it doesn't get answered by Father Jeff I will be sure to respond at the end.

Linda Asher 15:46:37
Thanks!

I know that civic authorities have not banned them yet.

FrSund 15:47:14
Do you know if the subscription that Zoom opened to schools for now is free for parishes?

Rachel Gifford 15:47:25
topic suggestion: how to talk to people pastorally about funerals. There's a lot of pain there and it's a tough situation already also: how long term should we be developing our plans? people are asking about Confirmation and first Communion and Easter. Obviously the virus situation is outside of our control and we don't know, but I'd rather have a plan and not need it than not be talking about it.

Rachel Gifford 15:50:13

Rachel Gifford 15:54:56
Share prayers of Spiritual Communion!

Paula 15:55:06
exactly! thank you!!

FrSund 15:55:33
We handed out the Act of Spiritual communion to our parishoners

Bbonczynski 15:56:05
Re: pastoral communication -- I imagine a lot of people are caught up in the "should I do" this trap with what content to put out to their communities. So, I would also remind pastors not to worry about in what format - like email to all, FB post, etc. -- you can do either or both or send a Flocknote message - just feel free to repurpose old "stuff" if you're not sure what to do or say right now - links to old youtube videos praying stations of the cross, prayers you've written and shared, past homilies in digital formats, etc. etc. None of us has to recreate the wheel. And all of us is thirsting for faith experiences right now. So no time to write & film a new video message? no problem!

Sharon 15:56:08
This is a time for lecto Divina

Deacon Chuck 15:56:28
Does the archdiocese have a license discount for zoom?

Jodi Phillips 15:57:07
Deacon Chuck - Zoom has removed its restrictions for free accounts

Fr. John Norman 15:57:52

Also, nonprofit organizations (ie. parishes) can get a 50% discount on paid Zoom license purchases through techsoup.org

FrSund 15:58:15

Rachel Gifford 15:58:17

re: serving the poor: please remind people who are able to donate blood if they can't donate money.

FrSund 15:59:48

Calvin overally gitty.... Never

Scahoy 16:01:01

Probably best to check with your pastor on those gatherings

jkmoser@archomaha.org 16:01:42

Yes, Sheryl- please follow the guidance of your pastor. And also utilize technology if possible.

Seri Letak 16:02:01

is there a fine print on the zoom that it will cost in a month?

Bbonczynski 16:04:12

Basic accounts are always free - Zoom has removed the 40 min limit for the free accounts so if you sign up now it shouldn't ask for CC info or charge you in future. Zoom is a great option right now - and Google hangouts, as Calvin already mentioned, too

Rev. Bill Bond 16:04:27

thanks

Quinlan Keller 16:04:29

Thank you!

Bethanndohmen 16:04:44

Thank You So Much for all You are doing!!

Heidi Knofczynski 16:04:49

Thank you!

Whitney Bradley 16:04:58

See you all tomorrow!

Padrekar 16:05:44

Godspeed folks, Thanks for being conscious of time Father Jeff. Peace!
