

Personal Histories¹

The purpose of these questions is to help team members get to know one another beyond the simple functional interaction that make up most of our day to day working interactions. This is not intended to start a group counseling session but rather to facilitate a deeper understanding of who the individual members are as persons.

1. Where did you grow up?
2. Please describe a unique or interesting challenge or experience from your childhood.
3. Other than your parents, who was a person who had a positive impact on you? What did that person do?
4. Share a time when your faith became a personal choice and a personal relationship with the Lord?
5. Describe a time you felt particularly frightened or overwhelmed?
